Title: The Magic Ax, Excerpt from Page 1

Word Count: 100

There was once a woodcutter who lived with his wife and six children in a cabin at the edge of the forest. Every morning he took his donkey and cart and went into the forest to chop down trees. Every evening he returned with the cart filled with logs.

His wife sold the logs for firewood in the nearby town, and in this way they managed to make a living, though with eight hungry mouths to feed, there was little left over for luxuries.

Tom was the oldest of the six children, and one day his father said to him...
